Anyone else that would need a special momente on the floor with bride, groom or both?

- Grandparents?
- Children of the Bride or Groom?

Other Dances to Consider

More and more, young wedding couples are creating zany and exciting routines with their bridal parties to enter the reception with a bang. Don't be left out of this hilarious and memorable trend.

- Groovesmen Groomsmen -

Groom, grab your men and get grooving at the wedding in a special dance you and your men do for the bride.

- Ladies Night Out -

Time for the bride and her ladies to have a fun time letting loose and finding their sexy selves in movement.

- Reception Lesson -

Want everyone at your wedding to be able to dance the night away with you? Good news! We're great with groups and can come and teach everyone at your wedding reception.

First Dance Do's and Dont's

Do's:

- Do inject your personalities
- Do practice in your shoes
- Do communicate with your instructor
- Do consider a shorter song
- Do have a BLAST!

Dont's

- Don't wait until the last month
- Don't look down while dancing. (Your partner is much better looking than the floor)
- Don't let the desire of perfection become a stress.
- Don't forget to enjoy yourself
